

Dear Friends and Associates of Broomhall House,

I hope this message finds you well. In looking forward to 2024 we wish you a peaceful and prosperous New Year and we'd like to thank everyone who has helped in organising and hosting the many events and experiential travel visits which have happened here over the past year.

2023 turned out to be our busiest year for corporate entertaining and heritage tourism. Perhaps the most significant event held at Broomhall – the annual reunion for the Scots Guards Association – involved over 750 people and the appearance of HRH Duke of Kent. Indeed we have continued to raise funds for military veterans and hosted another successful car and aerospace event, The Scottish Torque Show, in aid of the RAF Benevolent Fund.

This year there are a number of significant anniversaries which we will be marking. In February my father celebrates his 100th birthday; he was born at Broomhall House on 17th February 1924 and barring the interruption of World War Two when he was badly wounded as a tank commander, he has lived here ever since. In July we will be celebrating the 750th anniversary of the birth of King Robert the Bruce.

We continue to offer unique experiences and events at Broomhall House. Please don't hesitate to get in touch to find out how you may provide your clients with a once-in-a-lifetime experience as our guests.

With very best wishes and many thanks as always for your support,

Charles Bruce.
